

We and most of the people we know don't have cable. We are already subject to the news from a few large corporations who all seem to be reading from the same script. If anything there should even be more diverse sources of news as there are now. Please don't allow any further consolidation of the media. Thank you.